

Vince Pingitore, Jr.

It is with a heavy heart, I share the death of Past State President Vince Pingitore, Jr. Vince has been in the hospital after falling off a ladder. He was on the mend and transferred for rehabilitation. It was at the rehabilitation center that he succumbed to his injuries in the morning hours of August 30th.

Vince dedicated his life to the service of others through his work as a fire fighter and with the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks. He is a life member of Waldorf Elks Lodge #2421. Vince served his lodge in many capacities cumulating as Exalted Ruler and this year took over as Chairman of the Trustees. He also served the order as District Deputy of the Grand Exalted Ruler, MD, Del, & DC Elks Association State President and on the Grand Lodge Government Relations Committee. Vince will be missed by many. Please keep his wife Wanda and their family in your prayers.
